

First Aid Training

HLTFA301B APPLY FIRST AID

The First Aid Training Package covers all elements of the National Training Qualification. The course is nationally recognised and aligned to the Australian Quality Training Framework (AQTF).

Apply First Aid can be delivered flexibly.

To maintain currency with the latest in First Aid developments our Health Services Manager is a member of the Australian Resuscitation Council.

Employment information

There is now wide spread understanding in our community of the benefit of undertaking First Aid training. If your partner or workmate had a heart attack could you cope? Our graduates could.

In addition, under Workplace Health and Safety requirements it is now obligatory for many work places to have fully trained First Aiders on site. Some often pay a small allowance for the qualification.
